

milkweed
the soft underside
of an afternoon

Anne Elise Burgevin

the river bends

there ... on a boulder ... and gone an otter with its fish

catching but a glimmer – a dip and lift of my oar leaves a soft, slightly waving light

Neal Whitman

by the holy well
a lone linnet hears
my prayers

Mary White