

Blue vs. Green

By Jack, age 7

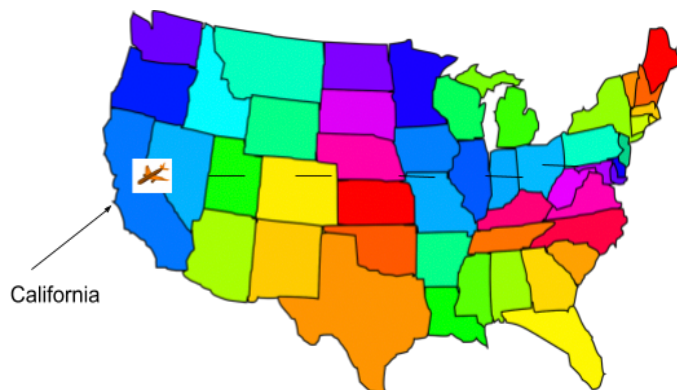

This is Blue.

This is Green.

Blue has a mouse. Green has a cat. The mouse is named Grey and the cat is named Brown. They are next door neighbors. Blue is planning to move to California. Green wants Brown to catch Grey, but by the time Brown gets Grey, Blue and Grey are already on the plane. Brown quickly gets on the plane. He finds Blue and takes a catnap on Blue's lap.

When they get to California, Blue takes Brown and Grey to his new house. There, he trains them to behave. When Green finds out that Blue has Brown, he is outraged! He gives Blue an angry phone call, but Blue just laughs and hangs up. THE END!
